To apply for work on our farms, please complete and submit an application form, along with copies of relevant identification (see below). Email to:

employment.blueberry@costagroup.com.au

Allow 2 weeks for processing and then contact us by email, or call the Recruitment team on (02) 66492784 to verify that your application has been received and processed. At this point, your application will be “activated” and you will be given a reference number, a date for further enquiry and more information as required.

The following documents/identification can be used as evidence of having a right to work in Australia:

- Australian or New Zealand passport.
- Certificate of Australian citizenship AND Australian Driver’s license or Proof of Age card.
- Australian birth certificate AND Australian Driver’s license or Proof of Age card.
- A Valid (in date) Australian Immigration Card (known as an IMMI Card).
- A Valid Passport from another country.

If an IMMI card or passport from outside of Australia is provided as identification, a “VEVO” check will be performed through the Department of Immigration website to show evidence of work rights within Australia, prior to any applicant commencing employment.
